

Brunch with the Boss Rules

To be eligible for Brunch with the Boss, participants must be between 16 and 24 years old and a be legal residents of the state of Iowa. There is no cost to enter. Participants can enter up to three times but can only win once. If more than three entries are received from the same participant the participant may be disqualified.

Winning participants under the age of 18 will be required to provide a signed parental permission slip. Participants are also expected to provide their own transportation.

Ankeny Economic Development Corporation (AEDC) and the participating companies make no guarantees and reserve the right to stop or limit the program in any way and at any time.

Winning participants must work with AEDC and the participating company to schedule a time that works for both the winning participant and the selected business.

The purpose of this contest is to increase awareness of businesses in the Ankeny area and the job opportunities available in their industries. Companies were selected to help show the diversity of industries, company size and structure.
